'Potential' of Abbot Property Sale Viewed

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

There are no 'for sale' signs hanging from the fence in front of Abbot Academy property on School street.

But Phillips Academy officials are "looking at the potential," of the property they acquired through the merger of P.A. and Abbot a few years ago.

Roughly translated, this means that the property could slip from academic use, if the price is right.

Phillips Academy Trustees have recently voted to abandon McKean and Abbot Halls, the buildings in the circle beyond the gates on School street, for academic use at the end of this school year.

George Nielsen, business manager at the academy, told the Townsman this week that the Phillips Trustees are "looking at the potential of the (Abbot) property," which is bounded by School, Abbot and Phillips streets.

The zoning allows for development of the area for single family house lots. With roughly 37 acres of land, there is potential for almost 40 homes in the particular area.

Nielsen said the trustees have two major points relative to the property — one being the relationship over the years between the town and the academy, and the maintaining of a good relationship.

The other consideration is obtaining a reasonable value for the land, since the property has represented a deficit during the early years of the merger of the two schools.

Nielsen said that all of the Abbot buildings would be abandoned at the end of this school year for use by the academic community and that the trustees were looking into possible uses for the building in conformance with town codes and bylaws.

The business manager said that some private interests had expressed interest in the property, some with an eye toward development of a retirement type complex or community, making use of the buildings there as well as the land.

The 37 acres involved in the total parcel includes some playfields north of Abbot street.

Nielsen pointed out that any development firm would have to take into consideration that acquisition costs for the property would be high, since it is a most valuable piece of property.

This would be reflected in any type of future use, the business manager pointed out.

Most of the interest expressed to date has been geared toward development of the area as a retirement oriented complex, Nielsen said.

In addition to private interests, there have also been some public groups examining the property and some churches. The latter groups also have the senior citizen development in mind, the manager noted.

While nothing has even approached the stages of serious discussion as to the disposal of the property, Nielsen said the P.A. community is "pursuing it and we are talking to interested

Contests for selectmen, school committee and housing authority will highlight this year's annual town election set for Monday, March 28.

Four persons seek election to the three year term on the board of selectmen and an equal number seek similar terms on the school committee, according to nomination papers filed Tuesday at the office of Town Clerk Elden R. Salter. Two persons seek a vacancy on the housing authority.

While the election spotlight has beamed on the school committee race in recent years, the scene may shift this year, despite a wide open race for the two school posts.

The decision of the majority of the board of selectmen not to renew the town manager's contract when it expires in August, is expected to be an issue in the selectman's race.

Current chairman, Milton Greenberg and incumbent Janet D. Lake, both are seeking re-election, Greenberg to a third term, Mrs. Lake to a second.

They will be challenged by Albert Cole, Jr., 49 Pine St., a retired deputy fire chief and former holder of several town offices, and Edward M. Harris, 311 South Main St., a retired U.S. Army colonel and author of a book on Andover's military involvement in the Revolution.

While the campaign is just

Miss Taft Donates Land To Avis

Rebekah L. Taft

Rebekah Lockwood Taft has presented the Andover Village Improvement Society with a third portion of her property in Andover. The well wooded thirty acres, located on the east side of route 125 between Vine St. and Wildwood Road, consists of pleasantly varied terrain with a stream running through it and in the spring a small pond. It has been designated the Amy Gordon Taft Memorial Reservation in memory of Miss Taft's mother.

Entrances are on Vine Street and Wildwood Road.

Miss Taft, a former trustee of AVIS, has long been active in conservation. She was an Andover resident for many years but now lives in Colorado. She has been donating this parcel of land to AVIS in installments since 1972. The three portions of land which have been given to the society comprise most of the reservation and she intends to give the rest at a later date. The entire property is currently under the management of AVIS and trails are maintained for the public.

The deed calls for handling the land in precise accord with AVIS' usual practice to hold it permanently for conservational and recreational use and keep the land in a natural, unspoiled and unimproved state so it may be enjoyed by residents of Andover and future generations. It is popular for walking, birding, cross country skiing, and snowshoeing. As on other reservations motorized vehicles, hunting and the use of firearms are prohibited. No buildings will ever be constructed upon the land.

The reservation has a very pleasing character and is popular in the summer for walking over the woodland trails which pass between a few remaining apple trees and through original openings in old stone walls. Dick Hoyer, the warden of this area, in keeping with the spirit of the land has put up numerous bird houses to welcome nesting birds. Several native species of trees have been labelled and a large bench at the top of a rise welcomes a pause to rest and reflect on nature.

Nat Smith, with the cooperation of some of the Phillips Academy students, has constructed a foot bridge to facilitate crossing a low lying stream. Near this is the site of a grist mill where pieces of an old grindstone can still be seen.

Foxes and raccoons have been seen here, as well as pheasant and quail, and until recent years the land provided a winter haven for deer.

AVIS is very grateful for this fine gift which has already been enjoyed by local residents for years. It will remain open to the public to be used to "encourage the love of nature" in accordance with the wishes of Amy Gordon Taft.

It's hardly news that the winter of '77 has been a pretty one, to homeowners, to the town as well. The Finance Committee this past week approved a transfer of $85,000 to cover snow and ice removal. It's not even count to get the led even for battle elements up to this day.

Town Manager Maynard Austin said this week that the storms this winter have cost the town approximately $17,000 for hired equipment for plowing operations.

The Public Administration Service, a consulting firm, has begun a survey of the Andover Police Department.

The survey, approved at a town meeting last year, will examine the department's areas such as personnel in relation to the public.

The planning board completed its review of a request for a variance from Crowninshield Co. for converting Sacred Heart to apartment use. The firm and Brothers submitted the suggestion.

The planners will meet next time by the board of appeals to hear the petition.

The selectmen will meet in regular session Monday, March 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The school committee next week will have to look at a policy on extra-curricular activities such as sports, on which classes are called for.

It's Been A Costly Winter

It's hardly news that the winter of '77 has been a costly one, to homeowners and to the town as well.

The Finance Committee this past week approved a transfer of $85,000 to the snow and ice removal account to get the ledger about even for battling the elements up to this past Sunday.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin explained this week that the six major storms this winter, cost approximately $179,000 in hired equipment. This was for plowing operations as well as almost $32,000 in snow clearance operations following the storms. The town had appropriated $105,000 for this account.

Purchase of sand and salt had been estimated at $60,000 for the current fiscal year, with $63,000 having been spent to date.

Overtime for municipal employees engaged in storm work has exceeded the account by $2,800.

The $85,000 transferred last week takes care of the deficit to date and provides a very small cushion for any future storms.

Police Survey Underway

The Public Administration Service, a consultant firm, has begun a survey of the Andover Police Department.

The survey, approved by town meeting last year, is to examine the department and areas such as amount of personnel in relation to the town, and proper allocation of manpower.

The consultants will be examining the department's present personnel roster and determine functions in relation to any specific problems in law enforcement in the community.

Planner Suggestions Under Review

The planning board has completed its review of the request for a variance by Crowninshield Co., for converting Sacred Heart school to apartment use and has submitted the suggestions to the firm and Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

The planners were permitted time by the zoning board of appeals which heard the petition earlier this month, in order to allow the inclusion of restrictions on the permit, if the zoning board grants approval.

The Brothers and Crowninshield representatives will now review the planners recommendations before they are ultimately submitted to the board of appeals for its decision making process.

Selectmen To Meet Monday

The selectmen will meet in regular session Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Memorial Hall Library.

School Committee To Meet

The school committee next week will have another look at a policy regarding extra-curricular activities, such as sports, on days when classes are called off due to the weather.

The board will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Stowe school.

Anyone For Conservation?

River Cleanup Plan Topic For Meeting

The Merrimack Valley Regional Planning Agency is beginning work this month on comprehensive plans for the future clean-up and use of rivers and lakes in the Merrimack watershed area.

In accordance with Section 208 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, all areas of each state must develop comprehensive management plans to meet the Act's goal of fishable/swimmable waters by 1983. These 208 plans, which must be developed by state and local authorities with full public participation, will be the reference point for water pollution cleanup in this area for years to come.

To encourage public participation in the 208 program, representatives of the League of Women Voters of Methuen, Andover, North Andover, Greater Newburyport, and Boxford have established a Merrimack Valley Committee of the Massachusetts 208 Task Force, a statewide League organization.

Merrimack Committee Chairman is Mrs. Joanne Dahlgren, 45

Whittier St., Andover.

The committee is inviting public officials, citizen organizations and the general public to learn about 208 planning at a meeting scheduled for March 10 in Andover. Speakers will be asked to demonstrate the relationship between 208 planning and resource issues in the Merrimack Valley regional planning area. Details of the meeting will be announced shortly.

P.A. Edges AHS Swimmers

The Andover High School Boys Swim Club recently held its first meet against the Phillips Academy J.V.'s at the Academy Pool. The AHS team put up a spirited battle, but P.A.'s depth paid off and took the meet 86 to 75. However, there were several outstanding performances from the Andover squad during the course of the evening.

Junior Sean Dowd led the way by contributing two record times for AHS swimming the 200 individual medley in 2:10.4, and the 100 yd. freestyle in 52 seconds flat. He also anchored the 400 freestyle relay with a record breaking leg of 51.6. All of these times have qualified Sean for the YMCA Nationals which will be held in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., later in April. Two excellent times were also posted by junior Derek Bates. Derek won the 100 yd. back stroke in 1:06.8, and the 100 yd. butterfly with a time of 1:04.4. Another AHS first came in the 500 yd. freestyle when senior Doug Greenlee held off a strong P.A. surge and won the race in 6:18.6. Doug also placed in the 50

yd. freestyle and swam a strong 69 on the 400 yd. freestyle relay. The team of Kevin Hannawalt, Len Tatem, Doug Greenlee, and Sean Dowd took Andover's other first in the 400 yd. freestyle relay with a time of 3:54.4.

Other members of the team that also placed in their respective events were Courtney Cronin, Chris Cronin, Eric Carlson, Will Wright, Jerry Doyle, and Len Peltier.

Track Team Captures Title

Andover tracksters, with a 9-0 record, edged Methuen Saturday to win the State Indoor Class "B" track championships. Andover had earlier taken Methuen in the Merrimack Valley Conference dual meet championship and left that team with a 8-1 record. Andover's strength was in the field events a week earlier, but the state title wasn't decided until Saturday's last event — the relay. The team had to come up with at least a fifth — and the squad of Luis Pizarro, Paul Keith, Jim Hamilton and Andy Chatto took fourth place in 3:41.3. Pizarro also won the 45-yard high hurdles in 51.5.9 and Chatto took third in the 300-yard run at 34.5. Rick Collins was fifth in 34.7.

In competition last week, Gerry Stabile won the shot put with 51-foot, 9-inch heave, and Paul Keefe won the high jump with a 6-foot, 4-inch leap. Those two combined for 20 of Andover's 43 total points. Methuen followed with 40 points; Weymouth South, 24; Framingham South, 20½ and Dedham, 20.

Charter Change Agenda

A hearing on a proposed change in the charter is scheduled for Monday at 8 p.m. at the selectmen's meeting.

Selectman Richard Bowen has submitted a charter amendment which calls for the town to submit a capital program to the selectmen annually.

The capital budget is submitted, according to the amendment, in sufficient detail to provide for its implementation with the annual budget.

The board is also expected to have some comment on a proposal from the town as well as a suggested budget planning presented last April by Manager Sheldon Cohen.

Bowen had placed budgeting on the agenda late fall and then submitted proposed amendments to the charter to the town in December. Submission of the item to the town clerk for a hearing on the proposal, then to the selectmen, and finally to the ballot, any change is possible.

Filmmaking Session 1 March 9

An organizational meeting of Andover residents will like to work with F. David Parry, Andover in-residence, has been scheduled for 6 to 7 p.m. on March 9, in the Media Doherty School.

Parry, whose stay here is sponsored by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Schools, has been working with school youngsters on projects. Part of his responsibility is also to be devoted to students and adults who like help with their photography or filmmaking.

What form this involvement will take will be on the interest shown at the March 9 meeting. There will be no charge and editing will be available to participants but cameras and film will be provided by the individual.

Filmmaker Session Is March 9

An organizational meeting for Andover residents who would like to work with Filmmaker David Parry, Andover's "artist-in-residence," has been scheduled for 6 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 9, in the Media Center at Doherty School.

Parry, whose stay here is sponsored by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Andover schools, has been working with school youngsters on various projects. Part of his residency is also to be devoted to older students and adults who would like help with their photography or filmmaking.

chairman of the Mathematics Department, University of Lowell.

Professor Doerr cites his concern for improving academic standards and the judicious use of the school-spent tax dollar as reasons for seeking the school committee post. Studies show that although school expenditures nationally have risen ten-fold during the past 25 years, school enrollment has not even doubled he states, adding during the same period academic achievement has fallen. He believes that the pursuit of academic excellence must continue in Andover but within the constraints of prudent budgeting.

"Because three-fifths of our tax dollars go into our schools the effect of educational spending touches everyone. Money alone does not improve the quality of education delivered in our classrooms. Other factors such as staffing with competent people, upgrading of academic standards, continual curriculum review and improvement, and a suitable climate for learning all have an important bearing on student motivation and achievement," Doerr states.

Professor Doerr believes "Andover parents now have a choice between two viable alternatives for the education of our young people. This freedom of choice must be preserved and the efforts of teachers and administrators focused on the attainment of academic excellence in both open and traditional classrooms." He says: "I have introduced and have been associated with many academic programs during my 17 years as an educator, and I have found value in them all. If elected, I intend to use my expertise to promote educational growth for all students in all parts of the Andover system."

Professor Doerr observes that "although there has been an upswing in the scores of Andover students on college boards in 1975-76, achievement scores in Mathematics, English Composition, Chemistry, and French are below the national average. These tests measure the abilities of our top students in the subjects they know best. The results suggest a lack of proper grounding in these disciplines compared to other schools. The national average includes the scores of many urban communities with serious social, language, and racial problems that impede the learning process. There appears to be no sound reason for Andover students to be out performed by over one half of the one million high school students participating in these tests."

Because the college board scores serve as a useful and reliable indicator of how well the student will do in post high school study Professor Doerr says, "I will, if elected, strive for continued improvement in these areas. I fully recognize the need for close co-operation among all participants in the educational process — teachers, administrators, school committee, parents, and students. During my career I have been involved in many experiences dealing with students, faculty, administrators, and the public. I know the value of an informed, reasonable, and open minded approach to educational issues. I want to put this experience and my personal dedication to educational excellence at the service of the Andover community."

Business Class Hears From Former Student

The business students from Andover High School recently had the opportunity to hear from one of their own.

Miss Carlene O'Brien who graduated from the business department of Andover High School in 1973, and who is currently president of the senior class at Bentley School of Accounting, returned to Andover High School and spoke to the business students.

In her talk, Miss O'Brien stressed how very helpful her high school business courses have been to her in her studies at Bentley. She advised students planning to go into business administration to be sure to get the mathematics necessary for college and to enroll in as many business courses as possible while in high school. She encouraged students to participate in extra-curricular activities while in high school and when they go on to college. She explained that both the college admitting offices and prospective employers look for that added dimension.

In her junior year, Miss O'Brien was the recipient of the $1,000 award sponsored by the accounting firm of Ernst & Ernst. She has specialized in public accounting while at Bentley and has interviewed only for that specialization.

Miss O'Brien outlined for the students the requirements to become a Certified Public Accountant. In the question and answer period that followed her talk, Miss O'Brien was asked about the employment opportunities in accounting. She told the students that she felt that they were excellent. She explained ed that she had had several interviews for positions in public accounting and has had five job offers. Miss O'Brien was asked the range of starting salary offers for members of her class. She said that the range ran from a low of $13,000 to a high of $15,000 for starting positions.

Miss O'Brien was enthusiastic about her experience at Bentley. She felt that Bentley offered excellent training and that the professors were outstanding in their fields. She told the students that although a student majored in accounting or management, the bulk of credits are required in the liberal arts area so that every graduate, regardless of specialization, is a well-rounded person.

Miss O'Brien suggested that students should try to visit any school they are especially interested in attending.

New Precinct List

Andover will have eight precincts instead of six beginning with election activity this year. If there is a special town meeting on Feb. 28, the new precinct lines will be in effect at that time as well as for the town election in March.

As a public service the TOWNSMAN this week continues a listing of those contained within specific precinct lines. Town Clerk Elden R. Salter states it would be helpful if the precinct listings were clipped and saved in order to facilitate voting procedures under the new districting.

Crisp Air Apples Arriving

After three months of beauty sleep in a carefully controlled atmosphere, "crisp air" apples are now arriving at retail markets.

A ninety-day rest period in storage rooms with a 38 degree temperature, a high humidity and a low oxygen level is what delays ripening and keeps the apples crisp and orchard fresh.

Only apples which have been stored by prescribed methods can be labeled "crisp air" - and the packaging should have the letters "C.A." for controlled atmosphere, with a specific number assigned to the grower's storage room.

Screening Clinic To Be Conducted

A vision and hearing screening service will be provided free to all preschoolers in the Merrimack Valley beginning early spring at Bon Secours Hospital.

The screening program is being co-sponsored by Bon Secours Hospital and the B'Nai B'Rith Women (Peace Chapter) as a service of the department of pediatrics.

Members of the B'Nai B'Rith Women's group are being specially trained to conduct the testing in both vision and hearing for this service program. Judy

At Museum

Boston's Museum of Science announces that Virginia Gunter, Boston, and Marlene Oliver, Newton, have been appointed artists on residence for two-month periods this spring.

During their separate terms of residency, the artists are expected to demonstrate ways of studying the environment that supplement the Museum's scientific approach. The differences as well as the similarities between visual arts and science will be highlighted.

Arrick, Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, Boston, is training the volunteer staff for the testing of hearing and Dr. Andre J. Paradis, Chief of Ophthalmology, Bon Secours Hospital and his staff will train them in vision testing.

The Merrimack Valley March of Dimes has donated an audiometer for the measurement of hearing. Bon Secours Hospital has committed the space and financed the building of a specially designed sound proof mobile unit for the testing of hearing. Any physician in the Merrimack Valley can refer patients for an appointment and service will be rendered at no charge.

Decorator Show House Aids Junior League

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 24, 1977

Helen Hopewell House

The Junior League of Boston announces that work has begun on their seventh annual Decorators' Show House. This year 35 of New England's finest interior decorators will transform the "Helen Hopewell House" on Waverley Ave. in Newton.

The architect of the "Helen Hopewell House" was George H. Sidebottom, who, even in 1920, was famous for his contemporary approach to architecture. His style was greatly influenced by European architecture of that period. The grand stairway in the hall and the mouldings throughout the house were hand-carved by European artisans brought to Boston specifically for the construction of this house.

The titles in the conservatory and breakfast room and the terrazzo in the swimming pool area were especially ordered from Italy, as was the granite mantle in the living room. The wallpaper in the ballroom was handpainted in Paris. All the paneling is of the finest Honduras mahogany and is startling in its contemporary feeling. The layout, construction and engineering of the "Helen Hopewell House" were considered very avant-garde in 1920. The house is considered a landmark and is one of the most beautiful ever built in Newton.

It is through the generosity of the present owner, Madame Paritchehre Elghanyan of Teheran, Iran, that the Junior League of Boston has the privilege to present Show House

'77 at 301 Waverley Avenue in Newton.

Show House '77 will be open to the public from May 1 through May 22. Proceeds from this, the Junior League's major fund raising event, go into the League's community program trust. In re-

Bantams Split On Weekend

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Bantam A hockey team, currently in the midst of its annual Canadian trip, split a pair of games last weekend before heading north.

Coach Dick Neal's crew edged the Methuen Bantams 3-1 at the Methuen High fieldhouse, and then dropped a tough 4-3 decision to the Concord, N. H. Bantams at Phillips Academy less than 12 hours before their departure.

The results left the locals with a 5-10 record overall.

Andover, 3-1

Andover was forced to kill a brief 5-on-3 disadvantage, and twice the rivals skated 4-on-4 during a scoreless, penalty-punctuated first period at Methuen.

Wayne Merola broke the double deadlock midway through the second period, snapping a five footer home with assists to linemate Joe Cammarata and defenseman Joe Benson.

Cammarata pocketed the eventual game winner with 50 seconds to play in the middle stanza.

"Merola and Cammarata broke 2-on-1 with Merola on the right side," explained Neal. "He drew the Methuen defenseman over and passed to Cammarata for a quick 15 footer.

The home team spoiled goalie Dave Cullinan's shutout bid, and pulled within 2-1, pocketing a 10 foot shot from a wide angle on the right side at 3:34 of the third period.

Charlie Heseltine notched the insurance red-lighter, his fourth of the season, five minutes later.

Defenseman Tom Hetley fed the puck to Bill Eaton, who skated up the right boards and circled in towards the net. He fired a quick feed in front to Heseltine, who finished the play with a perfect shot into a small opening to the short side.

Concord, N.H., 4-3

Andover dropped its second tight game to Concord, having bowed to the same club 4-1 a week earlier, and it marked the sixth loss for the locals by one or two goal margins.

Once again Wayne Merola snapped a scoreless tie in the second period, netting an unassisted goal at the 1:17 mark. Wayne took the puck behind the cage, circled in front, moved the goalie over with a fake, and deposited the disc in the left corner.

A series of penalties followed before the New Hampshire visitors tied it 1-1 at the 10:17 point.

There was a jam-up near the net, and a Concord player forced the puck in as he and Andover goalie Dave Leitch also went into the cage.

The locals regained a 2-1 edge on Merola's second goal of the contest and 13th on the season at 0:33 of the third period.

"We were on a powerplay when Joe Cahill controlled the puck in the Concord zone," recalled Neal. "He circled from the left boards to the center and dropped a pass to Joe Cammarata. Joe spotted Merola near the net for the short finish."

However, less than two minutes later the Granite Skaters tied it 2-2 on a 25 foot shot through a screen. Concord took the lead for good at 4:13, and followed with the clincher at 7:47 when the puck was stuffed home from the post.

Cammarata pulled Andover back to 4-3 with 48 seconds to play, taking a pass from Merola and flicking home a 15 footer for his 12th goal.

"We pulled our goalie for the last 45 seconds, and had two faceoffs in their zone, but we couldn't get the equalizer," noted Neal. "Dave Leitch played well in the nets for us."

Schedule

Thus far in Canada Andover has played two games in Toronto, toured Niagara Falls and the Hockey Hall of Fame, played wheelchair hockey with the patients at Bloorview Children's Hospital, and last night viewed the NHL game between the Toronto Maple Leafs and New York Rangers.

Earlier today they traveled to Oshawa, where they have games slated at 5 p.m. tonight, 5 p.m.

"THE ANSWER MAN ??? ..."

And, Still No Answers

Facing an audience obviously harboring an opposite view, Selectman Alan F. French met with 'constituents' last week to explain his reasons for not renewing the town manager's contract.

The majority of the 50 or so residents left as perplexed as when they entered, still wondering why four selectmen have chosen not to continue J. Maynard Austin as the town's chief administrator beyond August.

As the session wore on, following his explanation, then some questioning, there evolved a general thesis that the only major problem was a difference of opinion on management issues.

Mr. French admits that in two particular areas, financial reporting and central purchasing, a couple of items on which the board based its decision, Mr. Austin was responding, but not "moving sufficiently fast enough."

So we can judge that Mr. Austin was following the directive of the selectmen but not with the rapidity they desired.

We must revert again to a promise held here, that sound business practice, while desirable, cannot be moved into the municipal sector as easily as it can in private business.

Andover's charter stipulates the conduct of the town's business to be carried out by a trained professional with a board of selectmen as overseers and policy makers. The manager must work within the framework of the charter, viewing the town's progress and problems relative to the desires of the board he serves under.

That Mr. Austin was moving toward the objective sought by the selectmen, should be satisfactory performance.

But, in essence, there is more to last Tuesday's explanatory session which causes concern.

The matter of central purchasing is a curious one.

Central purchasing has been talked about in Andover's municipal sphere since 1963. A central purchasing system was inaugurated several years ago, with the manager responsible for its implementation. This year a purchasing agent was employed by the town, to more or less oversee a system already implemented.

Financial reporting, we assume, refers in some degree to the inauguration of a data processing system. On this matter, apparently the manager and the selectmen do not see eye-to-eye, since the matter, funded by town meeting a few years ago, has never been implemented.

Let's go back a few more years and look at the town's general reaction to a data processing system implementation. The thought was placed before the town at a town meeting by the school department. It was rejected soundly.

As for Mr. French deciding to call such a session, we wonder a bit how his colleagues will feel.

In view of the response another selectman received when he acted on his own, it will be curious to see if any mention is made this coming Monday about a fellow member of the board acting individually.

Selectman Bowen, we recall, was brought to task for submitting a charter amendment to the town clerk — proper channels — without the board's consent, or discussion of the matter.

We do not find fault with the idea of an individual selectmen acting on his own, in good conscience, when deemed necessary.

But, we wonder if there is a difference surrounding who it is that acts individually.

What last Tuesday's meeting accomplished simply was that there are four members of the board of selectmen desirous of changing the manager.

There were a lot of other people of another persuasion, resulting in a curious standoff.

Apologies

Our apologies to Rev. J. Everett Bodge, pastor of South Church, for erroneous reference in the story published in last week's Townsman concerning the meeting held by Selectman Alan F. French.

The story referred to comments at the meeting by Rev. Bodge as being made by Rev. Frederick B. Noss, who was minister at South several years ago.

The meeting was concerned with explanations by Selectman French on his decision not to renew the town manager's contract, and Rev. Bodge expressed his personal feelings favoring the continuance of J. Maynard Austin as town manager.

FPC Finds Oil, Gas Firms Hoarding Fuels for Profit

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — The bitter arctic storms subsided a bit last week, but the legacy of this winter's critical natural gas shortage already has been written in the cumulative agony of a nation defeated by itself.

The ravages of the cold wave have not created the pioneering spirit Americans have always depended on for the courage and determination needed to fight a common foe. Rather, like the Arab oil embargo of 1973, the wild greed of some of this country's major industries helped the weather defeat us.

Like prehistoric men and women denied the kindling for firewood, we huddled in our homes without heat as the weather struck with little warning, overcoming the most sophisticated technology known to man. But the weather was not a completely common enemy. Though most Americans suffered, others gleefully watched their profits soar beyond all expectations.

The Federal Power Commission now has evidence that oil and gas companies are holding back the production of vast natural gas reserves. The commission recently completed a confidential one-year investigation of natural gas production.

The investigators found that the oil and gas combines have deliberately delayed the production of natural gas under the Gulf of Mexico. Every major oil and gas company, says the FPC study, is holding back some production.

There are seven trillion, 300 billion cubic feet of known gas reserves under the Gulf of Mexico. The oil companies want to preserve much of this for future years, when the price will be even higher.

The commission confined its year-long investigation just to the offshore gas that has already been committed for delivery. The investigators found that the companies could get much more of this gas to the market faster, if they wanted to. This would provide all the gas that should be needed to ease the current crisis.

In other words, there is no gas shortage at the suppliers' end of the pipelines. The shortage is all at the customers' end.

The study charges that Amoco has failed to drill a well in one offshore reservoir. That untapped gas alone amounts to 17 billion cubic feet. The study also identified two other large gas reserves, which Texaco is keeping out of production until 1981. One of the reservoirs, known as Lighthouse Point, contains more than 100 billion cubic feet of gas.

The study also alleges that Mobil is holding back the production of more than 32 billion cubic feet of gas. Both Superior Oil and Union Oil, says the study, also could increase production.

Congressional Heat: Many congressmen are fed up with the oil companies that are hoarding natural gas. They're also furious with the Federal Power Commission for ignoring the problem so far. In desperation, they are pressuring White House energy czar James Schlesinger to take some corrective action.

The congressmen are particularly angry at Gulf Oil for failing to live up to its contract. Gulf promised plenty of gas to Texas Eastern, a pipeline that serves many northeastern states. But for the last five years, Gulf has cut back its deliveries to the pipeline.

This has forced many factories, schools and offices to close down. Rep. Andy Maguire, D-N.J., has written an angry letter to Schlesinger about the matter. The letter was signed by all the congressmen from states that the pipeline serves. The angry missive charges that the Federal Power Commission has been "grossly negligent" in enforcing Gulf's contract.

Mighty Multinationals: The great oil, munitions and industrial combines have become governments unto themselves. They have their own foreign service, intelligence apparatus, secret codes and other governmental trappings. So great is the economic power of these multinational, multibillion-dollar consortiums that they have become a separate world power. Their representatives actually assemble occasionally to discuss on a world scale how best to promote and protect their profits.

Many nations have become alarmed over the global operations of these multinational corporations. The underdeveloped or "Third World" nations in particular want to establish more control over the giant conglomerates that milk the world's natural resources for profit.

The United Nations, under pressure from numerous Third World members, is considering a code of conduct for the multinationals. But the United States has paid only lip service to the idea.

We have obtained a confidential Treasury Dept. report that praises the jumbo corporations. The report calls them "a positive force in the global economy." The Treasury document also claims that the multinationals are "transferring capital and other resources to where they can be most efficiently used and spreading wealth throughout the world."

The Treasury Dept. opposes any United Nations control over the giant corporations. The confidential document declares that "we should not support general international codes of conduct that are legally binding because their provisions would be unenforceable." The document also adds that the State Dept. agrees with Treasury's position, but the bureaucrats at State realize their uncompromising opinion has "a tendency to backslide under pressure of international negotiations."

Meanwhile, governments may rise and fall. Wars may shake the world, but the dividends keep pouring in to the multinational corporations. They remain remarkably unaffected by international boundaries and politics.

Muskie's Mad: The tall, ambling Lincolnshire senator from Maine, Edmund Muskie, has written an angry confidential letter to the White House. What's got the Democrat so worked up are proposed cuts in the budget of the Environmental Protection Agency. This is the agency that is supposed to control pollution, pesticides, toxic substances, factory waste and drinking water.

Yet, Muskie said the agency doesn't have the manpower to enforce the antipollution laws. For example, the new budget has no money for clean lakes. The logic behind the cutbacks, Muskie grumped, seems to be "if we don't know how bad things are, then perhaps... the furor for environmental efforts will die down."

Withdraws

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

This afternoon I am withdrawing my name as a candidate for the office of Selectman. Before doing so, I would like to publicly thank each of the many voters who came forward to sign my nomination papers. I would also like to explain to you my motives for running for his office, and the reasons I am now withdrawing.

During the past year, the present Board of Selectmen has fostered my disenchantment through their handling of several issues which indicated to me a lack of sensitivity, foresight or knowledge. I am dissatisfied with the Board for not submitting a site for the Solid Waste Plant, or at least for not going before the voters on this issue before reaching their decision. I am amazed that the Board has overlooked Federal Funds which are needed to improve Town facilities and services. I am disappointed in the Harbridge House Report, and the lack of commitment in constructively reorganizing Town Government. Ultimately, I am disturbed by the Board's refusal to renew Mr. Austin's contract as Town Manager. I know of no other man who has earned as much admiration and respect as Mr. Austin.

When I announced my candidacy, I did so because I thought the Town needed a change. At that time both incumbents were running unopposed and I felt that if no one was willing to get involved, it was up to me.

Andover now has two new candidates for Selectmen, Al Cole and Ed Harris. I have talked to both these candidates and found they have valid concerns and convictions, and they agree that changes are needed. The Town now has a choice and two votes with which to choose. It is nice to know that when I withdraw my name as a candidate for Selectman this afternoon, I will have those same two votes and a real choice.

David M. Montella

On Insurance

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

So Mr. Olesen thinks the public should know how much the taxpayers are "forking out" for teachers' medical coverage. Well, I wonder how many of us know how much we're all "forking out" for each other's medical coverage? Do we stop to figure how much we're "forking out" for the auto workers' master medical plan when we buy a new car? How much are we "forking out" for Mr. Olesen's medical coverage? We all pay for medical coverage for employees in the prices of goods we buy. The fact that some of our tax money provides some medical coverage for teachers shouldn't disturb anyone, even Mr. Olesen.

Andover teachers find that their plan hardly pays any medical expenses short of catastrophic illness — and they do have to pay for half of the plan themselves. It's not exactly a "freebie!" It may seem as if we are giving the teachers a big deal when the figures are published, but let's not act as if it is some kind of welfare hand-out. It is only a minimum coverage plan inferior to those most employers pay in full for their employees.

Unjustified

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I have read your recent Editorials which are critical of the Andover Board of Selectmen, and do not believe they are justified. The writer served on the board for a period of three years with both Roger Collins and Milton Greenberg as Chairman, and with Alan French and Mrs. Lake as members. In that period, I came to respect the honesty and integrity of Andover's Selectmen, and appreciate the degree of "soul searching" required to make the more difficult town decisions.

In my estimation, the major duty of the Board is to create policy and effectuate results through the office of the Town Manager.

I believe that the Board was always very straight forward with the Town Manager. The Board supported his recommendations for change and additional personnel when they were justified. When criticism was in order, it was not bandied about in the press, but presented to him in a private and personal manner. All the members of the Board respected Mr. Austin as a man of outstanding character.

Disagreements in philosophy are bound to occur in the management of the Town. As the budget grows, so do the complications. The issue should not be brought to the level of a personality discussion. Nor should anyone feel that such a job should be a permanent appointment. Reappointment is one of the hazards of the position.

The Selectmen are in constant and continuous communication with the Manager, and I believe they are the best judges of his performance. Those I have mentioned are men and women of outstanding dedication to the best interests of the Town of Andover, and I believe their judgment should be respected.

Icemen Finish Season 6-12

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High hockey team put the finishing touches on its 1976-77 Merrimack Valley League season last week, splitting the final two contests to close out the campaign with a 6-12-0 ledger.

Coach Pete Anderson's Golden Warriors were stunned by lowly second year team Dracut High, 4-2, but bounced back to dump Central Catholic 5-3 at the Billerica Forum last Saturday.

Sophomore center Paul Farnham, the third member of his family to star for the AHS skaters, led the club in scoring with 22 points, while linemate Paul Derby was tops in goals with 10.

Brian Bresnahan was the top point producer for defensemen with 10, while Capt. Joe Pasquale and John Fahey led the blueline corps in goals with four apiece.

Dracut, 4-2

Unfortunately, Andover became the only other team along with Lawrence High to lose a game to Dracut in the Middies' two year MVHL varsity history.

The Warriors were victimized by an outstanding goaltending performance by Dracut junior Pete Pascoe, who stopped 31 of the 33 shots fired at him in anger, AHS closed with a wide 33-20 shooting advantage in the game.

Middies' Co-Capt. Dave Burgess opened the scoring at 6:13 of the first period, flipping a 15 foot shot from the left faceoff circle over senior goalie Steve DeRoche's glove.

Two minutes later Andover sophomore wing Len Driscoll evened the count at 1-1, jamming in his own rebound with an assist to Brian Bresnahan.

That's how it stayed until there were 35 seconds to play in the middle stanza. Burgess was the culprit again, four seconds after an Andover powerplay ended, as he stuffed the puck past DeRoche from the doorstep.

Penalties killed the locals in the third period, as the Middies took advantage of six minors and a major infraction against AHS to register a pair of powerplay goals.

Mark Hall netted the eventual game winning marker at 9:33 as his 50 foot slapshot through a screen popped out of DeRoche's glove and nestled in the net.

Farnham closed the gap to 3-2 with 2:24 remaining, flicking home a 10 foot wrist shot from the right faceoff circle after the disc deflected out front, Paul Derby and Kevin Moore collected assists.

However, two penalties in the final 1:30 enabled Mark Hall to add the insurance goal with a mere 51 seconds to go. He flipped a rebound of Dave Burgess' shot

With two games remaining on the regular Minors schedule and one on the Majors and Seniors schedules, the undefeated teams sitting on top of their divisions are the Jaguars, Villanova and Celtics.

The Jaguars took over sole possession of first place in the Minors by stopping the Cougars, winners of the division's first two sessions, in a comeback thriller. Overall the Jaguars record is 7-6 while the Cougars are at 10-3.

The Wildcats upped their 2nd half record to 6-0 and 12-1 overall in knocking off N. C. State in another game that went down to the wire. State at 10-3 and Boston College at 11-2 overall remained in contention.

The Senior Division Celtics continued to roll, racking up their 13th consecutive victory. Only one game stands between the Green and a perfect season.

The AYBL has this week off, coinciding with the Andover schools' February vacation. Regular game action will resume next week and continue thru March with a full slate of activities.

The first of a series of special events begins next weekend with the second Andover Youth Basketball League Invitational Tournament. Sixteen teams will participate in two age brackets in the single elimination tournament won last year by Framingham and North Andover. Teams from Massachusetts and New Hampshire are again scheduled to participate this year.

Topping off the league's regular team action will be two individual tournaments for league players. The first is the One-On-One Tournament which will be followed by the Foul Shooting Tournament.

League activities conclude with the annual Awards Banquet scheduled for April 11.

Intermediate Division

In last week's games the Jaguars knocked off the Cougars in the Minors key matchup. The Jaguars remain undefeated in the division's final session while the Cougars dropped to 2-1. The Eagles and Panthers also picked up victories to stay in contention one game off the pace.

Jaguars 21, Cougars 20

The battle of the leaders certainly lived up to its billing as the thriller was undecided until the final seconds. The high-scoring Cougars, winners of the divisions first and middle sessions, appeared to have this game well in hand thru 3 periods. Derek Evruels, Colin Radford and John Robbins led the Cougars to leads of 10-4 at halftime and 18-9 after 3 periods and the Cougars appeared to be safely home. The Jaguars, however, exploded offensively and played great defense in the final quarter. During the late rally Pat McLarney, Tom Middleton and Rich Travis combined for a dozen markers while the defense limited the Cougars to a single bucket. McLarney hit the game winning hoop with 15 seconds remaining. Scott Higgins and Kelly Shannon led the winners defensive efforts while Mike Coelho and Hai Dang played fine floor games for the Cougars.

Jaguars: Middleton 11, Travis 6 and McLarney 4. 4-17-21.

Cougars: Robbins 10, Cevruels 6 and Radford 4. 10-10-20.

Panthers 17, Tigers 10

The Panthers upped their overall record to 8-5 in topping the Tigers. The Panthers held a 3 point margin at the half with Tom Bolduc, Paul Marad and Dean Orfanedes leading the way. After an even 3rd period, the Panthers pulled away in the final quarter. Scott Crabtree and Steve Holt were the Panthers floor leaders while the Tigers were led defensively by Dave Beanland and Mitch Levine.

Panthers: Marad 5, Bolduc 4, Andy McKissack 4, Orfanedes 2 and Joey Puccia 2. 7-10-17.

Tigers: Mike Mercier 4, Ed Lewandowski 2, Greg McAnern 2 and Rob Retelle 2. 4-6-10.

Eagles 21, Lions 8

The Eagles remained one game off the pace in dropping the Lions. The Eagles used a big 3rd quarter to break open a close game at the half. Leading by only 3 at the half, the Eagles opened the margin to 9 after 3 periods as Jim Daly, Bill DiAdamo and Andy Shagoury got hot. Dan Fraser and John Muldoon led the victors floor efforts as did Tom Kelly and Neil Robinson for the Tigers.

Eagles: Daly 6, Dave Fraser 5, DiAdamo 4, Brian Sheehy 4 and Shagoury 2. 8-13-21.

Lions: Brian Bedell 4, Mike Epstein 2 and Bill Foley 2. 5-3-8.

In the Majors key game last week, Villanova dropped N. C. State in the battle of the divisions first half leaders. In other games Holy Cross picked up an overtime win, Boston University won a squeaker and Boston College remained in contention a game behind.

Holy Cross 37, Northeastern 33

The hard-luck Huskies dropped their second overtime game of the season, this time to the Crusaders. Trailing by 6 going into the final quarter, Holy Cross rallied to tie at 31 at the end of regulation play as Bill Vickers, Hugh Meier, Rob Slayton and Jim Terrier keyed the rally. Northeastern's well-balanced offensive effort faltered late as the Huskies managed only a Dennis Glynn hoop and a pair of Neil Twomey free throws. The Huskies missed only 3 free throws thru the first 3 periods but hit on only 2 of 11 in the final quarter. In the overtime period Vickers hit a pair of hoops and Terrier a pair of charity tosses as the Crusaders picked up their 5th victory overall.

Holy Cross: Terrier 15, Vickers 11, Slayton 7 and Meier 4. 13-18-6-37.

Northeastern: Twomey 9, Adam Wise 8, Pat Beaudine 6, Glynn 6 and Rich Desmarais 4. 14-17-2-33.

Villanova 46, N. C. State 44

The Wildcats picked up their 11th consecutive victory in topping State. Villanova opened a 5 point margin at the half and extended it to a seemingly comfortable 32-22 lead after 3 quarters with Carmen Scarpa and Mike White leading the way. The two teams then combined for 36 points in the division's most prolific scoring period of the season with State just falling short at 22-14. State's E. J. Perry, held to only 3 points thru 3 periods, erupted for 10 in the rally while Don Minor had 8 and Tim Hart 4. The two teams match up this weekend for the divisions first half crown.

Villanova: White 20, Scarpa 17, Chuck Frazzette 5 and Mike Blair 4. 18-28-46.

N. C. State: Minor 16, Perry 13, Hart 11, Marc Bolan 2 and Craig Horgan 2. 13-31-44.

Boston University 31, Dartmouth 28

Injury-riddled B.U. picked up their first victory of the 2nd half in a squeaker over the Green. Led by Steve Johnson, Dartmouth jumped out to a 15-9 half-time lead. Andy Emmert and Steve Stethers then combined to lead a B.U. rally with their team leading 23-20 after 3 periods. The teams then matched hoops in the last quarter for the final margin. B.U.: Emmert 14, Stethers 7, Tom Powers 5, Joe Buzzett 4 and Glenn Acciard 1. 9-22-31.

Dartmouth: Johnson 14, Scott Tobey 6, Jeff Parker 4, Jim Dietzel 2 and Mark Nardone 2. 15-13-28.

Boston College 37, Harvard 12

B.C. kept their title hopes alive in downing the Crimson. Led by Ted Kelly's 11 markers the B.C. quintet led by 15-10 at the half. The second half was then all B.C. as the Crimson's shooting went ice cold against the Eagles press.

B. C.: T. Kelley 17, Jon Baer 8, Dave Factor 4, Art Dunlavy 2, Dick Kelley 2, Todd Lockwood 2 and Joe Zemis 2. 15-22-37.

Harvard: Matt Wells 6, Scott Zimmerman 3, Jack Kramer 2 and Charlie Ziegenbein 1. 10-2-12.

Close Games Feature Action

By Rick Harrison

Although the race is rapidly developing into a two-team struggle, the Senior Division of the Andover Church Basketball League displayed its excellent balance last week when each of the four games was decided by a margin of eight points (four baskets) or less.

First place St. Augustine A (8-1) won its seventh straight game, and fourth by either one or two points, nipping Ballardvale United A 33-31 on Dave Gusmini's bucket with 25 seconds to play.

St. Robert's B (7-2) gained sole possession of second place, erasing a two point fourth quarter deficit to dump St. Robert's A, 39-32.

Ballardvale United B won its fourth consecutive start, but it wasn't easy as the shareholders of third place (6-3) had to stage a last period rally to edge upset-minded Christ Church, 40-36.

South-Baptist snapped a three-game losing streak, but again it was no picnic, as that club received 37 points from divisional scoring leader Steve Rathbun and pulled away in the final minutes to a 47-39 victory over St. Augustine B.

The Senior Division is idle this week, during school vacation, but returns to action next Monday and Wednesday nights.

St. Augustine A, 33-31

Last minute victories have become a ritual with St. Augustine A, which fell behind 8-3 after one quarter.

However, Jim Hayes hooped eight second stanza points as the pacesetter grabbed a 19-16 half-time advantage.

The third period opened with consecutive buckets by BU-A players Jay McLeod, Kevin Hollenbeck and McLeod again for a 22-19 United edge.

Hayes countered with two baskets, sandwiching a Rich Gusmini fieldgoal, and just as quickly St. Augustine was up, 25-22.

Two buckets by McLeod put BU back in front, 26-25, but Jim Hayes countered in the closing seconds to put the seesaw battle in St. Augustine's favor again.

Bill Kettinger and Rich Gusmini traded hoops early in the fourth quarter, but Jay McLeod scored and brother Todd McLeod swished a free throw to make it 31-29 BU.

Dan Russo, who twice before swished last-second baskets to boost St. Augustine A to taut victories, tied the game this time.

That set the stage for Dave Gusmini's heroics, as he pocketed his only two points of the contest with 25 seconds left to provide the winning margin.

Jim Hayes (109 points) led all marksmen with 16 points, Rich Gusmini added 8, Dan Russo 4, Mike Beaudine and Dave Gusmini 2 each, and Tim Bolduc delivered a first period free throw.

Jay McLeod (118 points) and Bill Kettinger led the BU answering fire with 10 points apiece, Todd McLeod tossed in 5, Kevin Hollenbeck 4 and Gary Forbes 2.

The loss snapped a two game Ballardvale A victory string, and dropped that team from a share of second place.

Both squads converted 1-of-4 free throws.

St. Augustine A won their first meeting back on December 22 rather easily, 40-27.

St. Robert's B, 39-32

St. Robert's B won its second consecutive game and handed sister club St. Robert's A its second straight loss.

It was St. Robert's B that snapped the defending champs' 13-game victory skein earlier this winter, 21-18.

Don O'Brien flipped through eight points to help the B-team to a 128 first period spread, but balanced scoring by the A-team in the second session offset Bill Donovan's six markers as the deficit was sliced to 19-18 by half-time.

Two fast scores, the second by Tom Daley, propelled the A-team ahead 22-19 in the third frame, and the rivals traded hoops until Bill Donovan's floor shot and Jim Donovan's free throw tied it 26-26. Frank Branco put the A-club in front 28-26 at the buzzer.

The teams were even 32-32 midway through the fourth quarter, but St. Robert's B went on a late 7-0 binge to win the game.

Bill Donovan swished a charity toss, O'Brien hit a two-pointer, and insurance buckets were stuffed by Gary Lindsey and Dick Danner.

St. Robert's A missed no less than 10 free throws during the final stanza, eight of which were front ends in 1-and-1 situations.

Bill Donovan emerged as game high scorer with 13 points, Don O'Brien notched 11, Dick Danner 6, Bill Troy 4, Jim Donovan 3 and Gary Lindsey 2 for the winners.

Bill Martel was another standout for St. Robert's B.

Scott Praetz and Frank Branco powered the A-attack with 10 points each. Gregg Praetz and Pete Albert notched 4 apiece, while Tom Daley and Dennis Vecchi contributed their quarter baskets.

The actual winning point (33rd) came when Bill Donovan converted a technical foul shot. The victors were only 3-for-12 at the foul line, but the losers were a "perfect" 0-for-12 and also had two key players foul out down the stretch.

Ballardvale B, 40-36

Ballardvale B, a 37-26 conqueror of Christ Church the first time around, jumped to a 6-0 lead at the start.

However, C-C roared back behind Mark Rogers to pull even 8-8 and take an 11-8 edge entering the second quarter.

The Crusaders maintained a 20-16 spread at halftime.

Third frame baskets by Rogers boosted the C-C advantage to 24-26, but Bill Crabtree, Jeff Roy and finally Tim Lemay led a 10-2 run by BU-B to tie it 26-26.

Rogers' fieldgoal put C-C up by two entering the fourth canto, and the rivals exchanged hoops until it was 34-32.

Jeff Roy then buried two straight floor shots, the second of which gave BU a 36-34 lead with 1:20 remaining in the game.

Rogers tied the game moments later, but with 55 seconds to play he fouled out.

Scott Mattheson became the United hero in the closing seconds, stealing the ball and dropping a driving lay-up through to make it 38-36. Dave Livingston followed with the insurance bucket.

Jeff Roy (103 points) was high for United with 16, Bill Crabtree notched 8, Scott Mattheson 6, Tim Lemay and Dave Livingston 4 apiece, and Bryan Liang fired in a first period fieldgoal.

Mark Rogers (84 points) was game high with 19, and John Wall also cracked twin digits with 12 points.

A big key was holding Mark Frost to just 2 points, well below his average. Chris Connors dumped in 2 and Mark Mitchell had a free throw for C-C.

The victors missed all 10 of their charity tosses, while C-C hit only 2-of-10.

South-Baptist, 47-39

South-Baptist, behind the eagle-eye sharpshooting of Steve Rathbun (161 points), took a 13-9 first period advantage and led throughout the entire contest.

The score was 23-16 at half-time, but St. Augustine B pecked away and closed the gap to a single point, 27-26, late in the third period.

Rathbun gave S-B some breathing space with three points in the closing moments of the quarter (30-26).

St. Augustine B, which dropped a 38-16 decision to S-B the first meeting, was led by Chuck Singer with 17, Steve Parker 10, and Greg Shepard a season-high 8 points. Steve Paradis and Tim Madden hooked in opening quarter buckets, and John Parker also starred.

Dr. Maxfield Speaker For Chamber Event

Dr. Otis A. Maxfield

Rev. Dr. Otis A. Maxfield, Ph.D., minister of West Parish church, will be the speaker at the annual Retailer of the Year Award dinner to be held by the Andover Center Merchants, Thursday, March 10 at the Lanam Club.

Jeff French, chairman of the event, states reservations for the dinner and program may be made by contacting the chamber office.

Dr. Maxfield, minister of West Parish Church, is chairman, Mandala Continuum, Inc., a consulting corporation committed to bridging personal achievement with corporate growth. Mandala specializes in organizational development and executive evaluation and selection. Clients include Hoffman-LaRoche, Inc., CBS, Inc., Questor Corporation, and Abbott Laboratories.

Former vice president and officer of Questor Corporation, a diversified Fortune 500 Company in the consumer products field. Among its companies are AP Parts Corporation, an automotive replacement parts company; Spalding in Sporting Goods; Evenflo and Child Guidance in the juvenile field.

Past director of the American Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry in New York; president, American Association of Pastoral Counselors; member, board of directors, International YMCA; member, board of directors, World Neighbors, Inc.; president, Mead School of Human Development.

Dr. Maxfield's topic will be "Stumbling Blocks and Building Blocks to Personal Success."

underway, the manager issue is bound to be an important part of the coffee hours, political sessions and candidates night meetings between now and March 28.

The school committee race finds four men seeking election to two three-year terms which are being vacated by incumbents. Both Dr. Frank Griggs who has served two terms and Chairman George F. Olesen, completing his first term, have indicated they will not seek re-election.

Competing for the two posts will be Casimir J. Kolaski, 15 Carisbrooke St., a candidate a year ago who lost out to Committeeman Joseph T. Finn by two votes; James H. Flaherty, III, 11 Jefferson Lane; Charles E. Friese, 52 Pleasant St. and Alan Doerr, 108 Cross St.

Educational philosophy may still be an issue in this year's campaign. In recent years there has been contests between those espousing traditional education as opposed to the open classroom. Another "tag" which has become popular in campaigns is the term "moderate."

Based on recent announcements by school candidates, the additional system will still be an issue this year, although there is admission among the potential schoolmen for an open system as well.

Atty. Richard Savrann, 11

Sheridan Road, a state appointee to the Andover Housing Authority, will be seeking to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of AHA member John White. Also seeking the three year term will be Dennis R. Grogan, 33 Algonquin Road. Earl G. Effinger, 5 Iceland Road, is seeking the vacancy on the Punchard Free School Trustees.

Also unopposed, this year's ballot is Moderator William Dalton, seeking another one year term.

people about it."

The town several months ago expressed some concern about the future of the Abbot property.

At that time the Sacred Heart school property became a concern. Selectman Alan F. French, suggested that the special study committee named to look into that parcel also consider Abbot property for town use.

The committee, however, concentrated on the specific charge of the Sacred Heart parcel, given the time frame in which they had to work.

There has also been suggestion that if the Abbot property were abandoned for academic use, the town consider possible acquisition for civic center-type development.

It would now appear that as the property decreases in its value to continued use as part of the Phillips-Abbot complex, such matters as zoning and potential development will become a major concern for the town.

Town House Topics

keep an eye on a specific property, note whether it is being abused (dumping? motor vehicles? cutting of trees?); perhaps nail up a Conservation sign or two, or even rough out a new trail. One volunteer has offered to put up wood duck boxes if the Conservation Commission will make them (which it will). Signs, wire and staples are supplied to identify these areas.

On Tuesday March 1, the Conservation Commission is holding a "briefing" meeting of those who have already volunteered to help, plus any others who may be interested at 8 p.m. in the Conference Room, Town Hall, Second Floor.
